

Friends of Honey Bandit,

Please read and SHARE the following pages.

This Fundraiser can be successful with the shared involvement of Many Hands, Many Hearts, Many kind Souls:

Those who understand that Honey Bandit is a symbol of Something priceless!

Please share this email and attached pages.

Send it to friends and family.

Print it out and display it on your office desk

on your business door

wherever you know it can be seen.

Each and every one of us in his or her own way

Can make that extra difference!

On be'hoof' of Honey Bandit

and his miracle-working mom, Palomino Armstrong,

Thanks and God's blessings!

Honey Bandit-- Rescued Mustang Foal Fundraiser

Funds needed for expenses and donors have chances to win great prizes.

Palomino Armstrong rescued Chilly Pepper, Miracle Mustang last year. Now she is working to give the same chance of survival to Honey Bandit.

Local Shingletown community is joining together to help. Community businesses or individuals are encouraged to offer quality items for this fundraiser.

Contact The Trading Post
(530) 474-4577

BUY 3 tickets for $5.00

now through October 31, 2010

Donation tickets available at

The Trading Post

~ and ~

R.A.I.N. Thrift Store

Located on Hwy. 44 East at Black Butte Road

Honey Bandit Fundraiser

Prizes to be awarded:

a 10' by 10' gazebo [retail value $295], donated by
The Trading Post

Includes canvas, netting, and chain-suspended lamp

~~~~~

a 6.5' by 6.5' Six-sided gazebo [retail value $99], donated by The Trading Post

~~~~~

a Big Stone Ant metal artwork [retail value $30], donated by Doug Stewart

~~~~~

a silver horse desk pen holder [retail value $29.95],
donated by Barbara Omerod

~~~~~

a basket of Beanie Babies [retail value $50.00], donated by Joyce Hillman

~~~~~